BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

Requests to be informed if it is the intention of Govt that the minimum salary fixed in G. O. No. 7 3818-9 d. 25/12/04 is to be drawn by all acting Amildars irrespective of their former appointments and even for the first 30 days.

Amildars acting as Amildars". In dealing with the question the Government decided once for all that a minimum salary should be fixed for all officers appointed to act as amildars. The order of the 25th December 1902 directing that "an acting amildar irrespective of his substantive pay will be allowed to draw a minimum pay of Rs 120" applies therefore not only to a deputy sub-pro-tem deputy amilda" acting as Each amildar, but to any and every officer acting as such, and leaves no room for doubt.

In regard to the other question raised by the Comptroller as to whether it was the intention of Government that these officers should be exempted from the operation of art 82 of the M.S. Regulations under which no acting allowance is given to an officer acting in a higher appointment or grade in consequence of the absence of another officer on privilege leave for the first thirty days of such acting appointment, it is evident from the papers in the file that such an exemption was not contemplated, and this is further conclusive from the fact that Government in issuing their Proceedings of the 25 December 1904 did not order that an addendum should be inserted to art 85 of the Regulations including these class of officers among the exceptions to art 82 therein enumerated. The doubt however has obviously arisen owing to the word "minimum pay" having been used in the said Government order of the 25 December 1904. The emoluments of an acting officer constitute salary and not pay, and it is the sum total of his substantive pay and acting allowances (vide art 30 of the G. S. Regulations). In passing the order of the 25 December 1904 the Government merely intended that the emoluments or salary of these officers should not in any case be less than Rs 120/- This was all the concession that was intended to be allowed & then, and the concession was allowed because the general rule for the calculation of acting allowances laid down in art 87 worked with hardship in the case of some of them and the minimum salary prescribed ni art 80 was found to be insufficient and a special provision was accordingly made for them under art. 80-A. They were subject to all the other rules in the Regulations. To prevent misgiving and set at rest all doubt in the matter, I respectfully beg to suggest that the words "minimum salary" may be substituted for "minimum pay" in the addendum to art 80-A. issued under the authority of the said Proceedings. The term used by the Comptroller in his letter No. 6516 dated the 14th May 1904 in which the minimum of Rs 120 for acting amildars was proposed is "minimum salary" and the same term is used in art 80-A of the Regulations in the case of other officers to whom a similar concession has been shown.

Submitted to very favourable consideration for a draft. The intention is that one acting as an Amildar should not get less than 120 Rs under any circumstance &

Sir,

With reference to Government Proceedings No. Fi. 3818-9/ S & A.125-03-6 dated 25th December 1904 directing that the minimum pay of an Offg. Amildar be fixed at Rs. 120/- per mensem irrespective of his substantive pay, I have the honour to enquire whether I am correct in holding that the above order does not restrict the minimum limit to the case of sub pro tem Deputy Amildars only who are appointed to officiate as Amildars, but the rule as it now stands applies to all, including Taluk Sheristadars on pay rising from 40 Rs. to 60 Rs. who in virtue of their being present at the station are under Article 81 of the Mysore Service Regulations, appointed to act as Amildars during the absence of the permanent incumbent on short periods of privilege leave. I make this enquiry as the original case for decision was to be the fixing of minimum pay of sub pro tem Deputy Amildars acting for Amildar.

Article 82 entitles these Taluk Sheristadars to draw not more than Rs. 75/- per mensem for the first 30 days and thereafter acting allowance at Rs. 30/- per mensem so as to make the total salary not less than Rs. 75/-. Under the new rule article 82 is ~~in~~operative in the case of acting Amildars, and I therefore
